“That Man is the product of causes which had no prevision of the end they were achieving; that his origin, his growth, his hope and fears, his loves and beliefs, are but the outcome of accidental collocations of atoms; that no fire, no heroism, no intensity of thought and feeling, can preserve an individual life beyond the grave; that all the labours of the ages, all the devotion, all the inspiration, all the noonday brightness of human genius are destined to extinction in the vast death of the solar system, and that the whole temple of Man’s achievement must inevitably be buried beneath the debris of a universe in ruin—all these things, if not quite beyond dispute, are yet so nearly certain, that no philosophy that rejects them can hope to stand. Only within the scaffolding of these truths, only on the firm foundation of unyielding despair, can the soul’s habitation henceforth be safely built.”

“Our culture has replaced self-discovery with self-construction. Everybody is expected to create and manage his or her own identity. Personal achievement thus becomes the main means of justifying one’s existence. The pressure that this mindset creates is devastating. . . . Most students . . . are desperate to find a purpose beyond their own meager hopes and wishes.”

Secular Legislatio/Hostility to Biblical Faith

“This essay explores the choice many traditionalist Christian parents (both fundamentalist and evangelical) make to leave public schools in order to teach their children at home, thus in most instances escaping meaningful oversight. . . . Society need not and should not tolerate the inculcation of absolutist views that undermine toleration of difference. . . . If a parent subscribes to an absolutist belief system premised on the notion that it was handed down by a creator, that it (like the Ten Commandments) is etched in stone and that all other systems are wrong, the essential lessons of a civic education. . . . often seem deeply challenging and suspect. . . . Such ‘private truths’ have no place in the public arena, including the public schools.”

Limits of Empirical Knowledge

A Candle "Clock"

THE BURNING CANDLE

When was the candle lit?

Starting length (in)	Burn rate (in/hr)	Burn duration (hr)	Measured length now (in)

Solving for burn duration. . .

The New Physics

Since, when we look out into the cosmos, we are looking back in time, due to the finite speed of light, we are then looking at the events of Day 4 as they are actually happening. . . . We are seeing the after-effects of [the expansion of the universe]. . . . The very rapid acceleration of the cosmos during Day 4 of Creation Week caused Earth clocks to run very slowly compared to cosmic clocks. This, then, provides the massive time dilation needed to allow light to travel the vast distances of the universe, even billions of light-years in a matter of days—as measured by Earth clocks.

Worshipping Nature in NYC

Why Greens Hate Christianity – Part 1

“Many modern greens loathe the Judeo-Christian worldview and the western cultural superstructure built on its foundations. . . . [They] believe the biblical command to subdue and fill the earth is the primary reason why the present day planet lies in ecological ruin. . . .”

Mark Musser, Nazi Oaks, 16

Why Greens Hate Christianity – Part 2

“Christianity, in absolute contrast to ancient paganism and Asia’s religions, not only established a dualism of man and nature but also insisted that it is God’s will that man exploit nature for his proper ends.”

Environmentalists' Hatred for Man as Special Creation

Ingrid Newkirk, President of PETA: "A rat is a pig is a dog is a boy."

Peter Singer, Ethics Professor at Princeton: "The Judeo-Christian religious tradition is our foe."

Prince Phillip of England, President Emeritus of the World Wide Fund for Nature: "In the event I'm reincarnated, I would like to return as a deadly virus, in order to contribute something to solve overpopulation."

Environmentalists' Hatred for the Whole of Judeo-Christianity

“To the modern environmentalist, the Judeo-Christian worldview is an anti-natural religion. It’s emphasis upon transcendentalism over holism, freedom of private property over collective ownership, shepherding and farm life over wilderness romanticism, domesticated animals over wild animals, and sacrificial lambs over animal rights, is all directly counter to modern environmentalism’s romantic ideals.”

Sigmund Freud 1856–1939

The concept of sexual orientation was first used by Freud, and its effect, if not intent, was to radically resituate sexuality from its biblical/creational context to something completely new: the foundational drive that determines and defines human identity. . . .

By defining humanity according to sexual desires and segregating it according to its gendered object, Freud was—intentionally or not—suppressing the biblical category of being made in God’s image, male and female, and replacing it with the psychoanalytic category of sexual identity.

Israel's Unique Long Line of Prophets

“What makes the history of Israelite prophecy sui generis is the succession of apostles of God that come to the people through the ages. Such a line of apostle-prophets is unknown in paganism. . . . [The pagan prophet] incorporated a unique, self-contained divine power; there his ‘mission’ ended with him.”

The Pagan State

“[Pharaoh] was the fountainhead of all authority, all power, and all wealth. The famous saying of Louis XIV, l'etat c'est moi, was levity and presumption when it was uttered, but could have been offered by Pharaoh as a statement of fact in which his subjects concurred. It would have summed up adequately [Egyptian] political philosophy.”

Frankfort, Ancient Egyptian Religion (Harper & Roe Publishers, 1948) 31

The Pagan State

“Wherever a society has a naturalistic religion, grounded on the concept of continuity, man faces the total power of the state. . . . Where there is no transcendental law and power in a separate and omnipotent being, then power has a wholly immanent and immediate source in a state, group, or person, and it is beyond appeal. The state becomes the saving power and the source of law. . . . [It] becomes god walking on earth. . . .”

The Anti-Exclusivity “Argument”

1. All knowledge is derived from empirically-sensed reality.
2. Religious ideas concern extra-sensory reality (God’s existence).
3. Therefore all religious ideas are mere private speculations.
4. Therefore no religious idea can claim to be true knowledge.
5. Therefore no religious idea can claim superiority over all other religious ideas.

Non-Biblical Answers to: “Who Are You to Tell Me How to Live?”

1. Subjectivism (moral relativism): “Ethical judgments merely express an individual’s emotions or attitudes toward an action.”

Arguments for:

Circumstances & generation differ from person to person

Intolerant to impose one’s values on others

Two persons’ conflicting judgments can both be true because they both accurately reflect the individual attitudes

Non-Biblical Answers to: “Who Are You to Tell Me How to Live?”

1. Subjectivism (moral relativism): “Ethical judgments merely express an individual’s emotions or attitudes toward an action.”

Problems with:

Says nothing about actions themselves, only autobiographical expressions lacking basis for moral outrage over evil actions

Self-refuting since every person inevitably judges others’ actions (especially toward himself or herself)

Resulting anarchy leads to totalitarian imposition of the judgments of the stronger against the weaker to avoid social chaos

The Nuremberg Dilemma – 1946

“As an International Military Tribunal, it rises above the provincial and transient and seeks guidance not only from international law but also from the basic principles of jurisprudence which are assumptions of civilization and which long have found embodiment in the codes of all nations.”
